

Guests Confession

Who is your rascal? His name is John Guest. I had heard the name, but had never seen the man. No, you dont know him, Edgar went on. No one knows him but I. But I know him well. He had things in his hands for a week, while I was debating a transfer of my New Jersey property. In a week this is how he mixed matters. Perhaps, if you had given him time, I suggested, he meant to get them straight again. O, I shall give him time. I mean he shall get em straight, or I shall twist him so crooked his best friend wont know him. Did you never suspect his honesty? Do you suspect mine? But you have legal redress? Its no thanks to him. He had fixed things to a charm, he had done his best to cut me off and cover his escape. But Ive got him, and he shall disgorge! I hardly know why it was; but the implacable firmness of my brothers position produced in my mind a sort of fantastic reaction in favor of Mr. John Guest. I felt a sudden gush of the most inconsequent pity.
