

Redburn His First Voyage

Herman Melville was a 19th century American novelist, poet, essayist and short story writer. He is best known for his works Moby Dick and Typee. During his lifetime he was considered a failure, but after his death his worth as a writer was recognized. First published in 1849, this novel is based on the reminiscences of the authors first voyage in 1837. Wellingborough Redburn makes his first voyage to Liverpool where he sees the lack of democracy and the poverty, enjoys a wild excursion to London, and faces a harrowing voyage home. Melville elaborates on the theme of a youth unprepared for the cruelties of the sailors and the evils he finds in Liverpool.
